

Mail and Package Service

Often times owners and guests need to mail items to the Village at Squaw. Please understand that The Village at Squaw and Squaw Valley Hospitality do not have a secure mail facility to manage incoming and outgoing mail. Although we do have a system in place to track incoming items and notify owners and guests when items arrive, Squaw Valley Hospitality is not responsible for lost or stolen mail and/or packages.

- US Mail via United States Postal Service
 - Owners who consistently receive mail in Squaw should have a personal PO Box at the Olympic Valley Post Office.
 - If from time to time you need to receive mail at the Village please address as follows:
The Village at Squaw Valley
Attn: Owner name and unit number
PO Box 2025
Olympic Valley, CA 96146
- Package Services like FedEx and UPS
 - If you need to ship a package to the Village, we will receive the package, log it and contact you.
 - Shipping and receiving packages to the Village can be difficult. Many retailers do not deliver to PO Boxes and they will not accept a PO Box as the address. However shippers like FedEx and UPS partner in this area with USPS to execute final delivery. USPS needs a PO Box to execute the final delivery. Please use the following address for packages.
 - Package Address:
The Village at Squaw Valley
Attn: Owner name and unit number
1750 Village East Road B2025
Olympic Valley, CA 96146

Squaw Valley Hospitality is not responsible for lost or stolen mail or packages.
